

Fresh Faces Of Fashion Refreshing

For a fifth year, Fresh Faces of Fashion founders Yvonne Crum and Jill Rowlett found the most adorable cuties for the 2011 collection: Shirin Askari, Teffy Jacobs, Lainie Kritser, Ellie Lemak, Lisa Petty, Claire Lee Pruitt, Charlotte Rollin Reynolds, Casey Lee Robinson, Amanda Sisk, Catherine Laine Sowell, Amanda Sterett, and Piper Young.

As an event to benefit the Suicide and Crisis Center, the dozen dolls sans two (Ellie and Laine) strutted the Korshak catwalk in Brunello Cucinelli fashions on March 25.

After the show, former FFF Jennifer Lott confided that she and her fiancée, Chris Blackwell, were no longer engaged. Nope. They decided to go ahead and get hitched after "closing" on their new home earlier in the month. The twosome felt it was only the right thing to do since Jennifer's two young daughters would be residing with them. But don't cancel plans to attend their previously scheduled Hawaiian nuptials in the fall. That's still on.

And speaking of marriages, Suicide and Crisis Center founder Cliff Jones, 91, and Mardi, his wife of more than 60 years, attended the after-show dinner with their children and grandkids.

DON'T DRINK, DRIVE, AND SPILL

The luxury car lineup at the Hilton Anatole on March 26 for the Dallas Chapter of Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation's Dream Gala was carved down to one lane. In the right lane of the Chantilly Ballroom's drive sat a black Mercedes. Guests pondered whether the car was awaiting a dignitary in a rush — or perhaps the event was Mercedes-sponsored. No, on both counts. Seems the driver had spilled her drink on the console, frying the car's system. Last seen, the auto was on a tow truck headed to a vehicular drunk tank for resuscitation.

Inside the Anatole, 2011 Dream Gala Contagious Inspiration awardee Bret Michaels was six-deep in fans of all ages. Besides being a reality star and a rock star, Bret is the darling of the diabetic set. Not only has he suffered from Type 1 diabetes since the age of 6, but the winner of Celebrity Apprentice assigned his $250,000 prize to the American Diabetes Association.

Another still-popular chap at the event was former Dallasite Jeffrey Brewer, the foundation's president/CEO. He plans to double the group's $200 million in annual revenue within five years.

MARIN HOPPER IS IN THE BAG

If anyone is keeping score on fascinating family trees, Colin Duchin may set a record. The son of Peter Duchin and socialite Cheray Zauderer Duchin Hodges, Colin is less than six degrees of separation from the late Dennis Hopper thanks to marriages and remarriages. One of the real benefits is his having Dennis' daughter, Marin Hopper (Goldstone), as a stepsister. A former fashion director for Elle, Marin was at Jenna Alexander's home in Preston Hollow with her line of couture handbags on March 29. Sales that night benefited the Junior League of Dallas and Cattle Baron's. One purse in particular really knocked people out of the park. Called Hopper Blue, Marin had the shoulder bag made to reflect the color of her famous father's eyes.
